ARMY ROTC, RUNNERS AT UM RAISE
$900 FOR CAMP HORIZONS

MISSOULA--

Missoula runners raised $900 for Camp Horizons, a summer day camp for disabled children at the University of Montana, in a benefit sponsored by the UM Army ROTC program.

There were 287 runners in the 10 and five kilometer lengths for the second annual benefit held April 23. Last year the benefit gave $247 to Camp Horizons.

Lebahn is a junior in communications sciences and disorders from Townsend.

Camp Horizons serves about 15 children in each of its three two-week sessions. The children participate in a number of activities including swimming, horseback riding, arts and crafts.
